

You can create a background image to go behind text on your diploma by taking a photograph and bringing it into Photoshop and add s cover layer. Fill the cover layer with white and then reduce the opacity of the cover layer until the image shows thru at the desired intensity.

Suppose you were running a sail boat racing school. You might put an action shop behind the text of the diploma

